

Privacy Notice for Volunteers

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

This Privacy Notice has been written to inform parents and pupils of The Galileo Trust about what we do with your personal information. This Notice may be subject to change as the Data Protection Bill progresses.

Who are we?

Galileo Multi-Academy Trust is a 'Data Controller' as defined by Article 4 (7) of GDPR. This means that we determine the purposes for which, and the manner in which, your personal data is processed. We have a responsibility to you and your personal data and will only collect and use this in ways which are compliant with data protection legislation.

The trust has appointed Veritau Ltd to be its Data Protection Officer (DPO). The role of the DPO is to ensure that the school is compliant with GDPR and to oversee data protection procedures. Veritau's contact details are:

Information Governance
Veritau Ltd
County Hall
Racecourse Lane

What information do we collect and why do we require it?

As part of your volunteer role, Galileo Multi Academy Trust may need to assess your suitability for the role. This means that we need to collect information about you in order to facilitate this.

The personal data we collect about you includes:

- Personal identifiers (your name, address, contact details)
- Personal information relating to your particular role (i.e. if you are a parent governor etc)
- Information relating to the history of your appointment
- Register of business interests
- Race and/or ethnicity may be collected for equality monitoring purposes

Who do we obtain your information from?

Much of the information we process will be obtained directly from you (pupils and parents). We will also process information received from:

- Department for Education (DfE)
- The Disclosure and Barring Service
- Local Education Authority (Redcar and Cleveland Council)

Who do we share your personal data with?

Your information will only be made available to those who need it to do their job in relation to your role as a volunteer. This includes the relevant administrative staff.

We will share your information with the following organisations (please insert any organisations you may share the data with):

- Disclosure and barring service to conduct criminal record checks, if applicable
- our Local Education Authority (Redcar and Cleveland Council)
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- National Health Service bodies

For more information on information sharing with the DfE (including the National Pupil Database and Census) please go to: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>

We will not share any information about you outside the school without your consent unless we have a lawful basis for doing so.

How long do we keep your personal data for?

Galileo Multi-Academy Trust will keep your data in line with our Information Policy. Most of the information we process about you will be retained as determined by statutory obligations. Any personal information which we are not required by law to retain will only be kept for as long as is necessary to fulfil our organisational needs.

Do you transfer my data outside of the UK?

Generally the information that the school holds is all held within the UK. However, some information may be held on computer servers which are held outside of the UK. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure your data is not processed in a country that is not seen as 'safe' by the UK government. If we do need to send your data out of the European Economic Area it will ensure it has extra protection from loss or unauthorised access.

What is our lawful basis for processing your personal data?

Galileo Multi-Academy Trust processes your personal data and special category data based on its legal responsibilities to:

- Safeguard pupils it has responsibility for,
- Maintain adequate health and safety standards,
- Monitor equality and diversity at our school.

Galileo Multi-Academy Trust relies on Article 6(1)(c) and Article 9(2)(b) of the GDPR to process your personal and special category data.

What rights do you have over your data?

Under GDPR parents and pupils have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data:

- to be informed about how we process your personal data. This notice fulfils this obligation
- to request access to your personal data that we hold, and be provided with a copy of it
- to request that your personal data is amended if inaccurate or incomplete
- to request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- to request that the processing of your personal data is restricted
- to object to your personal data being processed

If you have any concerns about the way we have handled your personal data or would like any further information, then please contact our DPO on the address provided above.

If we cannot resolve your concerns, you may also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (the Data Protection Regulator) about the way in which the school has handled your personal data.

You can do so by contacting:
