

SUBJECT: Geography
Half-Term	Aut 1	Aut 2	Spr 1	Spr 2	Sum 1	Sum 2
Statement of Intent	How land has changed over time.	Can identify and describe some features in the course of a river	Locate countries of the world involved in the space race (hemispheres, capital cities and tropics)	Locate Countries of Europe	To identify key geographical features in Redcar	Identify largest areas in South America and Europe
Key Curriculum Coverage	Look how land has changed over time.	Use maps, atlases, globes and digital/ computer mapping (Google Earth) to locate the countries including South America. Use language of rivers.	Make connections between the Equator, the tropics, and South America. Look at time Zones	Research and discuss how water effects the environment, settlement, environmental change and sustainability Identify trade links around the world.	Use 4 figure grid references Local River Study (Tees) -Observe land/ river features -Compare and contrast rivers past and present -Look at measurements of rivers	Look at key physical and human characteristics of a river in South America. Compare how river has changed over time.
Key Vocabulary	Region County Great Britain British Isles Comparison Similarities Differences	Mouth Bank Source Meander Flow Rapids Gorge	Hemispheres Equator Tropic of Cancer Tropic of Capricorn Time Zone South America Capital City	Settlement Fair Trade Environment Sustainability	Mouth Bank Source Meander Flow Atlas Grid reference	Physical Characteristics Human Characteristics South American Countries

		Upper, Middle and Lower Course
--	--	--------------------------------------	--	--	--	--